NATIONAL LAW INSTITUTE UNIVERSITY, BHOPAL

The National Law Institute University established in 1997, has grown to become one of India's most esteemed institutions for legal education. Founded with the vision of bridging gaps in traditional legal education, NLIU has consistently evolved to meet the dynamic demands of the legal profession.

Over the years, NLIU has built a strong academic foundation, offering a curriculum that blends theoretical knowledge with practical exposure. With a multidisciplinary approach and an emphasis on skill-based training, the university ensures that its students are well-prepared for the complexities of the legal world. From moot courts and research initiatives to internships with top law firms and government bodies, NLIU provides an ecosystem that nurtures legal acumen and professional growth.

Beyond academics, NLIU has fostered a culture of excellence through its vibrant student community, active legal aid initiatives, and prestigious conferences and seminars. The university has also established itself as a hub for cutting-edge legal research, regularly contributing to important policy discussions in India.

As NLIU moves forward, it remains dedicated to shaping the future of legal education and contributing meaningfully to the legal landscape in India.

ABOUT US

CENTRE FOR RESEARCH IN INTERNATIONAL LAW

The Centre for Research in International Law (CRIL) is a student-run body NLIU, aims to fostering awareness and engagement with international law and policy among students. CRIL seeks to create an active and inclusive academic environment, collaborating with esteemed organizations to facilitate a dynamic interface between like-minded students and the ever-evolving realm of international law.

Since its inception, CRIL has remained committed to promoting discourse on international law through a range of initiatives, including lectures, and academic publications. The Centre has had the privilege of hosting discussions with eminent personalities, providing a platform for students to engage with contemporary global legal issues.

In furtherance of its objectives, CRIL has successfully published three volumes of its flagship journal, which serves as a repository of insightful research and scholarly contributions in the field of international law. Additionally, the Centre actively disseminates knowledge and updates through its weekly posts on international law developments and a meticulously curated monthly newsletter that covers significant global legal trends and analyses.

Through its continuous efforts, CRIL strives to cultivate a culture of rigorous academic inquiry, critical thinking, and active participation in the field of international law, empowering students to contribute meaningfully to the global legal landscape.

ABOUT THE COMPETITION
